STUDENTS HAVE CHANCE TO BUY LA TORRES ON REG DAY, EDITORS SAY

"All students expecting to register for winter quarter should bring an extra $5 with them on registration day for the purchase of a 1949 La Torre," announced Bill Henderson, business manager of the 1949 La Torre. According to advance information, sales will be fast and furious. With only 2000 copies, many of which have already been purchased, for 7000 students, it would be wise to either buy an annual or put up the $2 deposit, according to Bob Moon, La Torre co-editor.

"A systematic sales program has been mapped out," stated Henderson. "We intend to have full coverage of registration lines as well as the Men's and Women's gyms, to give everyone an equal opportunity to purchase a copy of the yearbook."

"We're not being prejudiced when we say we believe that the '49 La Torre will be the best yet," proclaimed Co-editor Moon.

"The Centennial theme is being followed exclusively in the make-up of the annual," stated Jim Mapes, co-editor, "and we believe it will really do justice to the Centennial celebrations that will prevail at State next year."

"We would like to specify that no high pressure sales system will be used in selling the '49 La Torre," Henderson announced. "A book that contains the qualities of the present publication doesn't need it, they'll go like hotcakes anyhow."

Campus Repair Jobs Okehed By State; 6 Jobs On Program

San Jose State students will be home enjoying a vacation next week, but workmen around the Spartan campus will be busy readying the college for winter quarter.

Comptroller E. S. Thompson revealed that the college has been given the green light from officials in Sacramento on various campus repair jobs.

The Men's gym will be warm next quarter, because first on the workmen's agenda is the replacing of the heating units in the gym. The job will cost $3600.

The celebrated filtering system for the swimming pool is scheduled for a $1200 overhauling.

The floor in the Little Theater will receive a repair job, and drain lines in the cooking rooms of the Home Economics building will be replaced.

Workmen will also be busy re-lining the fire boxes under two boilers in the boiler room at an estimated $3500.

Thompson also said that $3500 worth of general plumbing repair will be made throughout the college.

Sept. 1, the college received approval to build a $6000 addition to the field house. The building, to be used as the trainers' quarters, is expected to be completed by next summer.

TWO DAYS REMAIN IN DAILY TOY DRIVE

Only two days remain to bring in toys for the Spartan Daily toy drive which ends on Wednesday. If you have any toys at home that you wish to bring, please get them in on or before Dec. 15.

Many contributions have been brought in to date, and it is hoped still more will be brought in before the close of the drive.

Toys received in the drive will be given to the children at the Santa Clara County hospital convalescent home.

Transferring Vets Contact Room 32

Veterans training under PL 346 (GI Bill), who plan to transfer to another institution, should report to room 32 and fill out the necessary forms, reminds Mrs. Jensen of the Vets office.

For changing place of training or change of course the vet should fill out form 7-1905-e.

Vets going to another school should have the Registrar's office where last in attendance endorse the change and then the forms may be forwarded to the VA for processing.

After processing, the VA then will send a supplemental certificate of eligibility to the vet.

If the veteran was training in another regional area he should request that office to transfer his files to the new regional office.

COURT SUSPENDS FINE AS DEFENDANTS CLAIM CARD MISUSE 'ACCIDENT'

Chief Justice Eddy

By BOB HEISEY and MERLE BLONDIN

Glen Lundeen, named in a complaint for misuse of an ASB card, pleaded guilty at a hearing before the Student Court Thursday, Tom Eddy, chief justice, revealed today.

According to the complaint, Lundeen attempted to enter the library stacks with another student's ASB card.

Jim Dowd, the student whose card Lundeen used, was not prosecuted by the court when it was found he had not knowingly loaned his card.

Lundeen was fined $2 and given a suspended sentence when the facts of the matter were explained by the two defendants.

In their testimony the defendants explained that they were roommates. They share a single dresser and their belongings frequently become mixed, they asserted.

Students Explain Offense

Lundeen stated that in the confusion of early morning classes he inadvertently picked up Dowd's ASB card and when he attempted to enter the library he was questioned by the librarian.

The court, in handing down its decision, announced that "Dowd did not voluntarily lend his ASB card to Lundeen, therefore, he could not be held responsible."

"Lundeen violated Article 4, Section 3 of the ASB by-law, but because he signed his own name to the register, and because he owned an ASB card and was unaware of having Dowd's card, we feel that there was no intent on Lundeen's part to commit the offense and leniency should be granted," the court ruled.

Librarian Files Complaint

Dowd's ASB card was taken from Lundeen by the librarian and turned over to the Student Court with a complaint. A new by-law to the student body constitution places such offenses under the jurisdiction of the court for prosecution.

The hearing was held Thursday to enable the court to determine whether the defendants should be brought before the regular meeting and stand trial, Eddy explained.

The decision arrived at Thursday at the hearing was not released to the Spartan Daily until the court held its regular meeting at 4:30 Friday afternoon.

At Friday's session, the court discussed the writing of a by-law that would cover the organizations that have secret constitutions. The court delayed the composing of the by-law until next quarter.

Granting Of M. A. To Be Considered By Legislature

A bill authorizing state colleges to grant master's degrees in education will be placed before the state legislature when it convenes early in January, Dean of Professional Education James C. DeVoss, announced Thursday.

The bill would be a blanket endorsement for all nine state colleges to grant the master's degree, leaving discretionary powers to the state board of education. The board would decide specifically which colleges could grant the degree and in which fields they could be given.

Soviet Historians Making New Claims

MOSCOW, Dec. 10—(UP)—The monthly magazine "Round the World" said today that a Russian sailor, Alexander Fedorovich Mozhaisky, invented and flew the first heavier than air plane.

He did it in 1882, 21 years before the Wright brothers flew their plane, the magazine said.

Summing up, the magazine said that Soviet historians had learned after considerable research that Russian scientists invented the helicopter, seaplane, jet-propelled plane, and radio.

In other fields the Russians claim the first submarine, steam engine, railroad locomotive, incandescent bulb, spinning jenny, oil tanker, penicillin, caterpillar tractor, harvester combine, and adding machine.

Veterans Without Checks Requested To Contact Campus Vets Office Soon

Veterans authorized subsistence who have not yet received checks are requested to report to room 32 so the matter may be straightened out, says Mrs. Jensen of the Vets office.

With less than two weeks remaining until Christmas, the payment of subsistence allowances has assumed additional importance to vet enrollees and the regional office, the VA said.

"Even though our records indicate that vets should have received their checks by the date specified by us, we find that, in a limited number of cases, this is not so. We have no means of identifying and correcting such cases unless we are notified that the checks have not been received."

In many instances the VA has received inquiries despite the fact that vets have been sent VA form 506 indicating no subsistence allowance is authorized.

They suggest before submitting an inquiry, the vet should read his copy of the "506" to insure the reason for non-receipt if his check has not already been given.

This will not only save considerable time in the regional office but it will further expedite processing of his papers.

Vets should not submit inquiries if they have received notice from the VA that processing is being temporarily held up pending receipt of information or of records from outside the regional office.

Chico Folds Under Spartan Barrage By 58 To 33 Score

By CLIFF DANIELS

Coach Walt McPherson used 14 cagers Saturday night and literally ran the Chico State Wildcats into the ground as the Spartans registered a 58 to 33 victory in the Spartan gym.

A zone defense set up by the visitors apparently bothered the resident five for several minutes, and halfway through the first period the score was tied at nine all. However, the Spartans pulled away and held a 22 to 13 intermission advantage. The second half was all San Jose, and the final outcome was never in doubt. Don McCaslin flipped in 10 points for game honors.

In a preliminary game, the local frosh dropped their first game of the season by losing to Menlo J. C., 40 to 35. George Clark was high with 11 points. San Jose lead at half, 22 to 18.

Cafeteria Will Be Open On Reg Day

The home economics cafeteria will be open during the lunch hour on the days of registration for next quarter, Miss Fern Wendt, instructor in home economics, announced today.

The cafeteria will be open primarily to serve members of the faculty, but students are also invited to have lunch there.

Miss Wendt stressed the fact that the cafeteria is not usually open the first day of registration, but will be this time at the request of the faculty who do not have time to go elsewhere for lunch.

Spartans Sink COP In Season's Finale

By WADE WILSON

With a hard fought, but impressive, 9-6, win over the COP Tigers, Friday night, "The San Jose State college water polo team brought to a close their most successful season in history," said Coach Charlie Walker.

Fred Hannsen scored twice in the first quarter to give the locals a 2-0 lead. Driggs and Poucher each scored once for COP to even the score. Haines added one for the Spartans and Poucher flipped one in to knot the score at half-time.

Opening the scoring for the second half, Bob Keeler scored the first of his three goals of the evening. Fred Hannsen added another tally for the Spartans and Kent tossed one in for the visitors. Poucher added another goal to tie the game once more. Bob Keeler scored two more quick goals. Kent added one for COP. Norm Keeler tallied once for the locals and George Haines closed the scoring for the evening.

SJS Debate Team Defeats SC Team

The San Jose State college debating team decisioned the University of Santa Clara in a debate held in the Little Theater Wednesday evening, according to Mr. Wilbur F. Luick, director of Forensics.

The question discussed was, "Should the United States adopt a system of planned economy?" San Jose State upheld the affirmative.

Leslie Groshong and Paul Gormley were the Spartan speakers, and Ray Amrhein and Joe Greco were the Bronco speakers.

THRUST and PARRY

Dear Thrust and Parry
Attention: Bob Boden:

I read with interest your article entitled, "We Observe," p. 2, Wednesday, Dec. 8. The body of the article brought back memories of the most discussed balloting, to my knowledge, ever held at San Jose State. This, however, is not the reason for this letter. It was your opening and closing sentences, the actual key to your article, that caused me to stop and think. Let me quote, "Education holds the peace of the world in its cloistered halls of learning. With men of the conference tables falling on every hand there is only one force left to preserve the sanity of the world—education." And your closing sentences, "It's up to youth and their educators. Working together they can create a free world. Education is the answer! Through the context of your article I believe I am correct in interpreting your word 'sanity' as 'peace,' as that seems to be the basis of your article."

As for the reason of the many failures in attempting to bring peace and reconciliation to the peoples of the world let me quote a verse of Scripture: Isaiah, Ch. 59, vs. 4, "None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth; they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity." Isaiah Ch. 59, vs. 8, "The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace." Isaiah, Ch. 57, vs. 21, "There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." Romans, Ch. 3, vs. 16, 17, 18, "Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes."

As to the "only force left to preserve" peace in the world let me add one more verse. Isaiah, Ch. 9, vs. 6, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given . . . and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

I grant you education is a powerful instrument in achieving peace; but it is a means to an end, not an end in itself. The world must be educated to the ways of God before it can be educated to the ways of peace; which is one in the same thing.

Yours for a better world through Jesus Christ,

Dear Thrust and Parry:

What is the matter, guys and gals? A non-profit organization has gone to the trouble to bring you popular pictures at the reasonable price of 25 cents per person on Sunday night at an early hour, and you stay away in droves. It is your movie, designed to save you money as well as entertain. Frankly we're beginning to wonder if you want the movies to continue.

Don't you like the choices that have been made? If so, let us know what you want and we will try to schedule your choice. Next quarter you will have a large list of available movies from which to choose.

Any other criticisms or suggestions that you have, let us know, after all, it's your movie. It's up to you. Do you want the movies continued?

Boden Puts His Foot In It

Outgoing Spartan Daily Chief Dave Leonard (left) muses nostalgically through the publication he steered during the fall quarter. Bob Boden, newly-elected editor, surreptitiously measures Leonard's well-worn saddle shoes to determine whether he will be able to fill them.

When asked for comment, Leonard reminisced, "Ah, me!" At the same time, looking ahead, Boden crowed, "Oh, boy!"

Following graduation Dec. 17, Leonard goes to a new position with the United Press in San Francisco after coordinating the efforts of the largest staff in Daily history. However, Boden expects his crew to top the record size of Leonard's staff.

Bob Boden, New Editor-Elect Of Daily, Boasts Excellent Journalism Record; Is Former GI

By JACQUE WOLFF

Amiable Bob Boden has been selected to fill the position of editor of the Spartan Daily for the forthcoming winter quarter. By popular vote, Boden was selected by his fellow reporters and editors. Then upon the recommendation of Mr. Dwight Bentel, Journalism department head, the Student Council accepted and approved Boden's appointment.

"I only hope that I am able to fill the shoes of our present editor, Dave Leonard," recently commented the 28-year-old journalism major. "He's done a swell job and it's going to be tough sledding to maintain the high standard Dave has set for the Daily."

Boden began his journalistic pursuits in 1939, when freshman Bob entered Riverside college as a journalism major. During that time, he worked on the Arroyo, a weekly campus newspaper. He held the positions of editor and business manager.

Rose Through Ranks

The sound of a bugle and Uncle Sugar's beckoning finger stirred and aroused Bob's patriotic blood. So, he was drafted! During the four years spent in the Army, he "rose from the lowest of ranks to the exalted and high position of staff sergeant." Serving in both theaters of operation, Pacific and European, Bob became something of a "radar expert." He served with the Air corps, Signal corps, and Transportation corps.

In 1946, Boden returned to the halls of learning at Riverside college. During that same year, Bob was married and brought his wife, Emily, to California from New Jersey.

Lauds Journalism Department

Suave Bob entered San Jose State college in 1947. "After due deliberation and investigation of the journalistic offerings of other institutions," he selected this college because of its excellent courses and reputation.

A store of experience stands behind Boden that makes for good editorship. Since he began writing for the Daily, he has worked from the position of reporter to editor of the paper. Other executive positions have helped him along his way: day editor, feature editor, and associate editor. He received practical experience last summer working on the Salinas Daily Californian.

HEAR... from THERE

By JACK GOLDEN

Are you disgruntled with the way your profs are grading you? Than why don't you do what the University of Michigan students are doing; they're grading their profs.

Michigan students are asked to fill out course and professor grading forms. Each form contains 10 questions with five answers possible for each. The grades range from A- (very good) to E (very poor or lousy). Some of the points to be graded were:

1. Clarity and thoroughness of presentation of subject matter.
2. General approachability and willingness to assist students.
3. Contribution of this course to your education.
4. Intellectual honesty, open mindedness, tolerance of differences of opinion.

The men of Troy asserted themselves recently when they established a "I hate women week" on the USC campus.

Daily Trojan warned masculine pants wearing students that it was felonious to be seen talking to women; it was considered a capital offense to be seen smooching with a skirt.

Idea behind the unsociable week was for men to "take back the world that belongs to you." One poster that best showed the male viewpoint read, "Even if it wears

MY GODDESS

By DAN WECK

God created you alone,
Separate from all the world,
And set you on a nearby throne.
To awe and love his glorious world,
And be adored by me,
My Goddess.

His Angels round your head entwined,
In your glorious hair create your crown,
He's blessed you thrice, and none can find,
More glorious one before whom to bow down,
And I worship at your feet,
My Goddess.

He molded you beautiful,
With body and face of glorious grace,
And your eyes so sweet and wonderful
To guide me by their glance,
My Goddess.

But to me he gave the most,
The greatest gift to any man,
The right to see, to know your grace,
And knowing love

Jim Zane Elected Silver Saber Prexy

Fires Of Home Burning In Minds As Quarter Ends

By PAUL DAVIS

San Jose State is getting ready to greet the Yuletide in a manner somewhat common to the Great American College Campus facing end-of-the-term exams—complete concentration on . . . you guessed it, the long vacation ahead.

From out of the crescendo of snapping suitcase locks, a few sane voices are murmuring a veritable dirge of evil prophecies, but to no real avail. The average Spartan book-buster dreams only of home sweet home and the goodies of the holiday season.

Whatever it is that's causing all this makes itself felt in the atmosphere. It's the cold nights, the corner lots selling Christmas trees, the store windows downtown sporting articles of delight that cry out to be bought and wrapped in gay papers, and the carols on the radio that remind us of the true meaning of the season.

The subject of talk never changes, centering mainly on estimates of the snow fall, prices of gifts to be lugged homeward, and "what'll I get my girl for Christmas?" True, once in a while someone speculates on his possible g. p. average, but the dirty looks from surrounding friends are enough to kill any further efforts along this line.

There is no time comparable to this season and everyone and his brother seems to be out to beat the rap with one heck of a good time.

May they last long!

Superintendent Of Student Union Is Not 'Policeman'

By VERN BAKER

Newly appointed superintendent of the Student Union is Mr. J. P. Livesay, of San Jose.

Mr. Livesay said that his duties as head of the Student Union would be strictly in a supervisory capacity. He said that he would be an adviser to the students who needed his help in recreation programs.

Says 'Not Policeman'

Emphasizing that he was not a policeman and that he did not have police powers, Mr. Livesay said that he was in no way connected with the recent laws passed concerning the Student Union.

"I am here to help plan a recreation program in the Student Union," he said. "Such a program, however, would be initiated only by request of the students."

Mr. Livesay said that a recreation plan would evolve over a long period of time, and that a planned program for large scale recreation would not be possible until more facilities and room were made available.

Is Former State Employee

Mr. Livesay was formerly with the State Department of Employment in San Jose. Before that, he toured the country doing educational promotion work. He said that he has also acted as recreation adviser to various youth organizations.

"Thus far, student cooperation has been marvelous," Mr. Livesay said, "and my only hope is that it will continue to be so in the future."

Women Of Pi Epsilon Tau Take Children On Yule Tour

By RAY HASSE

Thirty children from San Jose's Home of Benevolence ceased to worry last Saturday about the number of shopping days left until Christmas. They are escorted on their annual Christmas shopping tour of downtown stores by 15 girls from Pi Epsilon Tau who have chosen to share their free time with the children ranging from seven to 10 years of age.

The trip was high-lighted by a visit with Santa at Hale's department store. Here they also dreamed they way through toyland, with the train display in the window accounting for much of their time downtown. Christmas or otherwise, an opportunity to ride the escalators always commands its share of attention and Saturday was no exception.

An afternoon of riding up and down and dodging in and out of crowds, convinced the girls in charge that they had a full day. On the way home, however, each little group decided that it had been a wonderful day.

Pi Epsilon Tau, composed of San Jose State education majors, is busily planning future activities for the children. The proceeds from a theater party, given at the Gay Theater on Nov. 29, and a rummage sale, scheduled for the winter quarter, will be used to send such children to various summer camps as will be selected by the organization.

This is a new undertaking for the group replacing the few days of field trips that they have been able to offer in the past. Until next summer, the group will direct its attention to raising of the necessary funds, according to Jean Jace, president.

Pi Beta Sigma Sets Yule Party

Pi Beta Sigma fraternity will entertain members and their guests at a pre-Christmas party Thursday, Dec. 16, according to Bob McFadden, publicity chairman for the group.

Social Chairmen Tom Sprague and Don Lathrop are making arrangements for the affair which will feature "presents" for all.

DSG Fraternity Installs Officers

Delta Sigma Gamma graduating seniors Veri Vandivert and Al Maroni were honored by a banquet at Lou's Village Dec. 8. New officers of the fraternity were installed at the dinner, according to Jim Shouse, publicity chairman.

President Doran Nielsen; Dick Knox, vice president; and Phil Ward, secretary, were among those taking office. Others included Jack Teubner, treasurer; and Cal Carter, Inter-Fraternity representative.

Members of the fraternity's Novice boxing team were special guests at the recent banquet. George Johnson, Bob Meyer, Leon Talesfore, and George Muro were sponsored by the DSG's in the tournament.

Shouse reported that 40 couples attended the annual dinner dance held at Rio Del Mar hotel Dec. 3.

Nature Trip Sign Up Starts Next Quarter; Dr. Cavins In Charge

Signing up for the West Coast nature school trip to Death Valley will start at the beginning of next quarter, according to Dr. Gertrude Cavins, registrar for WCNS.

The two-unit, six-day field trip will be limited to 100 students, she said. "Names will go on the list as the $15 fee is paid. We can not hold places open for those who'll 'pay later'."

Dr. Robert Rhodes, biology professor, will make an advance trip to the camping site. As an "advance scout," he will check on possible weather conditions, lodgings, etc. Dr. Alexander McCallum, biology professor, may accompany Dr. Rhodes.

A brief bulletin prepared by Dr. Rhodes soon will be available. It will stress the need for a rugged constitution on the six-day excursion.

AP'S COMIC PREDICTOR MAKES SCRIBE BOIL OVER

By DAVE PARNAY

The AP's comic sportswriter, Oscar "Fearless" Fraley, has again beaten his contemporaries to the punch. Fraley released his bowl game predictions Thursday. On the whole they're pretty good. Fraley picks Northwestern over California in the Rose Bowl. He seems to be going along with the Midwest's apparent superiority over Western football, since comparative scores give the Bears at least an even chance.

However, it's pretty hard to take Oscar seriously. His All-American team, released in mid-season, had more than one slight discrepancy. Not the least of these was one of his first string guard selections, UCLA's Mike Dimitro.

Fraley Errs

Dimitro, it seems, was having his troubles with Bruin coach, Burt LaBrucherie. Mike got some All-American recognition in 1947 and yet he wasn't even starting for a mediocre Bruin team, and he didn't like it. So he quit or was canned, and wasn't even playing when Fraley's team reached publication.

Such things don't phase "Fearless," however. In fact he seems to thrive on them.

Justice For Oklahoma

In the Orange Bowl he likes North Carolina and "Choo Choo" Charley Justice by a whisker over Oklahoma. It should be that close. Comparative scores are admittedly unreliable, but in Oklahoma they're pointing out that the Sooners sunk the Missouri and Missouri trounced SMU.

In the Orange Bowl only does he seem to be definitely out of line. Oscar likes thrice beaten Texas to dump Georgia. The Bulldogs lost only one game all season although their schedule wasn't too tough. But in their big game they beat a good Georgia Tech team that had one of the nation's top defensive records.

In the Cotton Bowl Fraley goes along with SMU over Oregon. Oregon finished higher in the AP's own nation-wide poll of the country's best teams, but is still the logical underdog. That game incidentally could end up in a passing duel between Oregon's Norm Van Brocklin and Gil Johnson with the celebrated Doak Walker taking a back seat to the Webfeet's big and tough forward wall.

In San Diego's Harbor Bowl, which should be one of the day's best, Fraley likes Nevada over Villanova. Nevada could win it if there's no wind to hamper Stan Heath. The game should be close but it's hard to forget that Villanova scored 33 points in the last quarter against USF.

Locals To Hit Road For Utah Salt Mines

Washington Square courtsters have played six games this season, and still have a long schedule ahead of them. Dec. 17 and 18 will find the locals in Provo for a two-night stand against the Brigham Young Cougars, and on Dec. 20 and 21 the Spartans will perform in Salt Lake City against Utah State college.

Don McCaslin, rangy Spartan forward, continues to set the scoring pace for San Jose State college with 66 points recorded in five games. McCaslin has a fine push shot and good two-handed jump shot as his offensive weapons.

Center Stu Inman is crowding McCaslin in this department, however, and he has accounted for 62 markers, also scored in five contests. Most of Inman's scoring is done on tip shots and push shots from around the key hole.

The following tabulation does not include the Chico State college game which was played in the Spartan gym Saturday night.

SPARTANS HUNTED DOWN AND DESTROYED BY BEARS

California lived up to its reputation as being the team to beat in the Northern California Inter-collegiate Rifle conference when the Bears easily out-shot San Jose's Musketeers Thursday afternoon.

For the third consecutive time the Californians shot in the 1400's. This time they garnered 1406 points to the Spartans' 1338; perfect score is 1500 points. Three members of the Bear leadslingers were named on last year's All-American five-man rifle team.

According to Sergeant Alvin Ousey, rifle team coach, the University of California rifle team should go all the way to win the National Rifle championship. He said that "the team that beats Cal will really have a feather in its cap."

"Cal placed too much pressure on our boys; we simply tried too hard to pull an upset," Sergeant Ousey said.

High point man for the Spartans was Warren Winovich with a 279. Other team members and their scores are Carroll Collier and Louis Kirby, 268; Don Woodworth, 266, and Bob Edminster, 257.

FINAL WEEK CRAMMERS AIDED BY STUDENT Y

The Student "Y" has thrown itself into the Battle of Finals Week, and is devoting itself wholeheartedly to the facilitation of study, it has been learned from Bruce McNeil, president of that organization. A profound hush has replaced the busy murmur which usually characterizes the "Y" lounge, located at 220 S. Seventh street, and students are invited to take advantage of the silence.

"Most Student 'Y' members are busy studying for finals," McNeil explained. "The lounge is close to campus, and is an ideal place to do one's final five minutes of cramming."

"This is particularly true in the case of English finals. The lounge is right across from the Home Ec building, and not too far from the barracks and classrooms in which English courses are taught."

"Consequently, the Student 'Y' feels that its facilities might be of use to all students during the present week, when every minute counts," McNeil said. "We don't have too much space, but there's a candy machine and a 'coke' dispenser, so you can see that the lounge has some real advantages for study."

Specialists Address Commerce Students

Dr. Melbrun Wright's class in "Buying for Retail Stores" (better known as Co. 184), has heard quite a number of Bay Area buyers speak on problems facing the industry this quarter.

Addressing the group this term have been Miss Mary Rose, manager of the women's department at Roos Bros.; Cecil George, owner of Boys' Store; Charles Kahn, co-owner of Wood's Clothing Store; Gordon Russell, basement buyer of piece goods at the Emporium; and Lee Kaufman, owner of Marcus, the Furrier.

Commerce 184 has not held a monopoly in speakers over in the commerce wing this quarter, however.

Dr. Wright announced that his class in Salesmanship has heard talks by Walter McGuire, district manager of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of New Jersey; J. Robert Cole, life underwriter for Ohio National Life; and Forrest J. Curry of the Curry Agency in San Francisco.

SJSC Police Grad Passes State Exam

A San Jose State college Police school graduate has passed the California State Bar examination, it was learned today from Miss Doris Robinson, Alumni association secretary.

The former Spartan, now residing in Palo Alto, is Russell V. Roessler, who graduated in 1942. His wife is the former Hester Clark, who graduated from the Commerce department the same year.

During the war years, Mr. Roessler served as a lieutenant i.g. with the Marines in the Pacific area.

A total of 475 applicants passed the examination, it was indicated. Their admission to practice awaits State Supreme Court action in January.

Other former Staters may have been included in the list of persons passing the examination, but these could not be immediately identified, Miss Robinson indicated.

AWS Xmas Party Ends Busy Quarter; Winter Plans Made

Fall activities of the Associated Women Students were ended last week with a cabinet meeting Tuesday and a Christmas party Wednesday.

President Barbara Brewster announced at the cabinet meeting that she will be off campus next quarter doing student teaching. The gavel was turned over to Vice-President Marilyn Zeller.

Coming plans, including the annual AWS Valentine dance, next year's campus compass, and new wall paper in the AWS lounge, were discussed.

Adeline Clark was appointed to look into suggestions for a worth while project in which AWS could participate. This project would be a yearly one. Melba Sills, publicity chairman, said the project will stimulate the interest and activity of AWS members.

January 11 has been set for the quarterly big-little sister dinner honoring in-coming freshmen and transfer students. Following the dinner, the group will attend the San Francisco State-SJS basketball game.

At what Miss Sills described as the "outstanding meeting of the year," Marilyn Zeller took the roll of Santa Claus and distributed Christmas gifts to members. Refreshments were served and the group joined in the singing of Christmas carols.

Women students are urged to enter into AWS activities next quarter, since a big schedule is being planned.

VETS MUST EXCHANGE THEIR ELIGIBILITY FORMS

World War II veterans holding unused Certificates of Eligibility for GI Bill education or training issued before Sept. 1, 1948, who are planning to enter training for the first time after Jan. 1, 1949, should exchange them immediately for a new type certificate.

The certificates may be exchanged in person or by mail at any Veterans Administration office.

VA is urging the exchange because of new registration techniques that will be used after Jan. 1, 1949, to safeguard the interests of veterans and the government.

After Jan. 1, 1949, the extent of entitlement for training of each veteran enrolling with an old certificate must be verified by VA before tuition and subsistence payments may be made. In verifying entitlement, VA must assign each enrollee a claim number and set up the initial index record for the veteran.

By exchanging the old certificates before entering training, the veteran will enable VA to dispose of these actions well in advance.

Christmas Sales Below Last Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10—(UP)—The American people apparently are spending less on Christmas shopping this year than they did last year, or they're more inclined to wait until the last minute.

The Federal Reserve board reported that department store sales for the week ended Dec. 4 were four per cent lower than in the same week last year.

It was the fourth week in a row that there was a decline from the 1947 rate.

Buyer resistance to higher prices was suggested in some quarters as a factor in the drop. On the other hand, there is a greater availability of goods this year and the urge to shop early may not be as great as it has been previously.

In any event, sales were off in all reporting Federal Reserve districts for the week and four-week period ending Dec. 4 in comparison with the corresponding 1947 periods.

In San Francisco sales were off eight per cent for the week and 10 per cent for the four-week period ending Dec. 4.
